Ben Wylie is a man driven by many ambitions—riches, success, recognition—often at the cost of his own family. But one December night he takes a fateful turn and finds himself fighting for his life in a cold and hostile place. Here, amidst mysterious shadows and voices, and unseen enemies in the darkness, he discovers his most driving ambition of all: To reach his family alive. Acclaimed author Chris Heimerdinger brings us to his most moving story to date, the tale of one man's journey of self-discovery on a brutal, icebound landscape, and his family's desperate search to find him before it's too late—An adventure that reveals the unexpected potential of the spirit, and the limitless powers of God.
