Dr. Thoughtless Actions, a young geneticist, awakes one morning to find a cardboard box secured to his head. Unable to wrench it off, he attempts suicide, not only failing but also, unbeknowst to himself, cloning himself, creating Dr. Wishful Thinking. The two losers fall in love, fall in science, and fail to make a baby. Their conversation, an intricately woven semantic circus, traverses boxedness, love, and the more ridiculous areas of metaphysical speculation. Through a series of rapid exchanges, verbal games, and musical numbers, they discover that all their thoughts come from God, all their words come from the devil, and their desire for love is a habit acquired from the cinema. Sound familiar? Don't be so hard on yourself.

[boxhead]: a bedtime story for your brain.

Are you kind of occupied person, only have 10 or perhaps 15 minute in your day to upgrading your mind proficiency or thinking skill even analytical thinking? Then you are receiving problem with the book as compared to can satisfy your short space of time to read it because this time you only find book that need more time to be examine. [boxhead] can be your answer as it can be read by you actually who have those short spare time problems.

Sherry Francis:

As a college student exactly feel bored to reading. If their teacher expected them to go to the library as well as to make summary for some reserve, they are complained. Just tiny students that has reading's internal or real their passion. They just do what the educator want, like asked to the library. They go to at this time there but nothing reading very seriously. Any students feel that reading is not important, boring and also can't see colorful pics on there. Yeah, it is being complicated. Book is very important for you. As we know that on this era, many ways to get whatever we would like. Likewise word says, many ways to reach Chinese's country. Therefore this [boxhead] can make you truly feel more interested to read.
