Dove si va (Italian Edition) Marco Marchi

Una vita può essere vista come una strada? O la vita è già essa stessa una strada? Poniamo che si possa dire così, allora ogni individuo ha la sua strada nella vita, anzi la strada è la sua vita. Però egli non la conosce a priori, come non trova luce nel buio. Può solo scoprirla curva dopo curva, salita dopo salita, discesa dopo discesa. I personaggi di questo libro sono persone anonime e normali, raccontano tutti della propria strada, almeno di quella conosciuta finora. E ogni testimonianza parla di esperienze, esprime sensazioni e paure nascoste, rivela sogni ed elenca ricordi, come tanti tasselli di un puzzle senza limiti che alla fine combaciano insieme uno con l'altro. Questa raccolta di racconti parla di un viaggio, quel viaggio che ogni persona fa all'interno di se stessa e attraverso i suoi domani, alla ricerca della felicità e della propria realizzazione, perché quella è la meta finale a cui tutti aspiriamo.
