Way Back Then Neil Christopher

A sweet and simple bedtime story, written in both English and Inuktitut, introduces readers to several short myths from Inuit mythology

Kudlu's children will not go to sleep until he tells them a story of long ago. Before they will shut their eyes, they want to hear about a time long before Kudlu was born, a time when the world was magic. Before they can sleep, they want to hear about giants, animals disguised as humans, little people the size of lemmings, and all of the other wonderful things that existed way back then.
