Facing a DUI Charge in California: What You Need to Know (Quick Prep) Darren Kavinsky

Facing a DUI Charge in California is essential reading for anyone arrested and charged with driving under the influence in the state of California. Written by a nationally-known and respected criminal defense lawyer, this thorough reference explains everything you need to know about what you are up against, and how to bring about the best possible results in your case. This book provides answers to the most frequently asked questions, as well as many you may never have thought to ask. Why was my driver's license taken away? Do I have to appear in court? What are possible punishments that I face? How can I avoid trial? If I go to trial, what should I be prepared for? Facing a DUI Charge in California helps you answer all of these questions, as well as provides a deep understanding of the two different cases that are triggered by a single arrest incident: one with the court, and the other with the California DMV. You'll be an informed and educated client after reading this material, able to select an appropriate lawyer and, perhaps most importantly, sleep better at night.

About the Author Darren Kavinsky is a criminal defense lawyer and television legal analyst that has been dedicated to defending people since 1994. He is the founding attorney of The Kavinsky Law Firm, with offices in Los Angeles, Newport Beach, Riverside, San Diego, San Francisco, and elsewhere. Mr. Kavinsky has taught lawyers around the country to be more effective in defending DUI cases, delivering lectures on jury selection, cross-examining law enforcement officers, facing ethical issues in criminal cases, and more.
