Rise to the Divinity within You: Talks from the 2006 BYU Women's Conference Various Authors

One of the great blessings of the Restoration is to know that we each have a spark of divinity within us, that we have not only divine potential but the capacity to reach that potential. There is such strength in knowing who we are as we seek to cultivate our own divine qualities. That knowledge can also serve as a powerful anchor, preventing us from being defined by others or by our circumstances. It is a powerful motivation for good. This theme from the 2006 BYU Women's Conference reminds us that we are all children of God and helps us to better reflect Christ's light in our lives.
