Y vio que lo hecho no era tan bueno (Spanish Edition) Mario Valdivia

¿Qué pensaría el Creador si entrara en un ánimo evaluativo de los resultados de su obra? Quizás lo que pareció bueno en el momento germinal, ahora no lo parezca tanto. Un viejo desconocido, por razones que solo él conoce, se anima a ensayar una respuesta, que escribe febrilmente en unos fajos que terminan perdidos. El autor de este libro los encuentra, no logra dar con quien los hizo, y decide publicarlos, agregándole solamente algunos adornos editoriales como puntos aparte aquí y allá, comas sensatamente distribuidas y secciones separadoras. El viejo autor anónimo imagina la peligrosa finura del hilo que sujeta de su existencia a la creación y al ser humano, a medida que el juicio del Creador considera cómo diversos aspectos y momentos de la historia cargan la balanza hacia un lado u otro. No el juicio final individual sino el de la creación entera es lo que relatan estas páginas delirantes. El espeso fastidio de Creador con la criatura y sus obras, aliviado a duras penas por el amor del Hijo a los humanos, tiene en el Agente a un ejecutor siempre preparado del veredicto. El diálogo entre ellos, y las acciones que discurren para sacar a los seres humanos de su descarrío y ayudarlos a alcanzar las alturas esperadas por el Creador, constituyen el meollo de este relato sorprendente, que por momentos sobrecoge.
