Sport---whether it's pee-wee, high school, college, or professional---brings the world together and divides us apart like nothing else, and X-Slam SkaterCross takes that love and hate to the next level. When Detroit All-American teenager Deal Dixon makes one mistake, he is given one choice: leave town and his first love and high-school sweetheart, Vickie Anderson, and best friend, Jake Storm, or go to jail. He heads west to Los Angeles where the new extreme sport X-Slam SkaterCross has launched an exciting new league. It's the first extreme team sport that has fans of all ages on the edges of their seats. Deal soon becomes the golden boy of the league and the face of X-Slam. The fans adore him until he is given another choice from the league of owners that will surely turn that love into hate. Soon Deal makes a decision that cuts his career short---until his friends, Vickie and Jake, come to his rescue at a time when he's at his lowest point. The trio begins a quest to get Deal back on top, but will it pay off?
