"WHAT IS POETRY?"

The heart has its reasons the reason cannot know, said Blaise Pascal. Add, the soul has its dark places the heart cannot probe. Only the depths of the sea can know the depths of the sea, the aridity of desert know the aridity that gnaws at its bones. The poetry that appeals to me, de?es reason and dogma, good and evil, saying what frees us from our shackles. Only so can it express the paradoxical and tragic truth we all have to live with: Love, life and death, as one.
