The Classic COR/COTR Reference Updated!

Incorporating the most important changes to regulations affecting federal acquisition, this third edition of The COR/COTR Answer Book remains the “go to” reference for CORs, COs, and other acquisition professionals.

Included in this third edition are:

Updated and expanded coverage of the policies and regulations on government property
Revised dollar thresholds that comply with the most recent changes
In-depth coverage of performance-based payments

Coverage of the new FAR rules on COR certification details the elements of this new three-tiered mandatory certification program, along with the requirements on training, experience, and continuous learning. The easy-to-use question and answer format facilitates quick access to specific information. In this third edition, The COR/COTR Answer Book continues a tradition of trusted service to acquisition professionals carrying out their vital role in contract planning, formation, and administration.

Contents

The Contracting Officer’s Representative and Contract Fundamentals • The Federal Acquisition Process • Planning for the Acquisition • Preaward Technical Assistance • Planning for Contract Administration • Contract Monitoring, Inspection, and Acceptance • Administering the Contract • Contract Termination and Closeout • Listing of COR Duties and Tasks • Acronyms

About the Author

Bob Boyd worked for over 20 years as a COTR, contract administrator, and contract specialist for the U.S. Navy. He was an instructor, as well as department chairman and associate dean, at the Army Logistics Management College and the Navy Acquisition Management Training Office. After retiring from federal service, he founded Training Concepts, Inc., which provided tailored COR/COTR training and consulting services for government and commercial clients. He is a member of the National Contract Management Association and is a Certified Federal Contracts Manager.
